What is the Common App?

The Common Application, or Common App, is a website dedicated to making the college application process streamlined. With over 900+ colleges and universities accessible with a standardized application, the Common App simplifies the process of applying to multiple institutions across the globe at once.

Why should I use the Common App?

While not every college or university uses the Common App, every year more and more join. Just this past year, over 60 institutions became available for students to apply for the coming academic year. The site also shows you what you need for each institution specifically and keeps the information nice and organized! If you don't know where you want to go, don't worry, V/N Collegiate can help!

V/N Collegiate & the Common App

V/N Collegiate Associates is an education company empowering students to ask insightful questions, explore disciplinary boundaries, and confront conventional ways of thinking. We aim to assist students in every aspect of their educational journey, with an emphasis on guiding each and every one of our clients through the college application process. With V/N Collegiate, we offer the College Package, which guides our clients through their essay writing process as well as the Common App resume portal. The College Package provides your child three (3) sessions with a writing coach to hone their college essays; in addition, your child will have six (6) half hour sessions with a certified educator to answer any and all of their questions about the college process, including where to apply, who to ask for a reference, or even how to find a major. Simply put, the College Package has what you need. Parents, we know the last couple years have been a whirlwind; allow V/N Collegiate take the stress away from the Common App process. So, deep breath; and let our dedicated and qualified educators be the guide to your child's success.
